Ceremony locations are one-of-a-kind:

- Historic Dining Room—In front of a roaring fireplace with antique lighting overhead and beamed ceilings.
- The waterfall is a lovely place to say your "I Do's" for a small ceremony. The water trickles and the foliage is bountiful.
- Ensnore yourself with nature amidst the many trees bordering the National Park Forest. Enjoy the peaceful setting in the backyard surrounded by 100 year-old stone walls or under a tree that has seen centuries of history.

It is your wedding day, so if you would like a package customized to fit your needs we are happy to create it.

A few extras that many couples add:

- Couples Massage
- Spa Basket in Suite
- Additional Reception Time
- Flowers (corsages, additional bouquets, etc.)
- Photography (3X5 Prints & CD)

Classic Ceremony

Make even more memories while you relax at the inn with your closest guests whom are staying overnight after your special day. Enjoy the front porch in the evening with the splashing of the waterfall creating the background music of nature. In the morning, a group breakfast in the dining room or front porch awaits all overnight guests.

Something Special

A lovely option for those with a few more reception guests. You choose your eight closest friends and family to stay overnight, so that you can enjoy the inn exclusively. The fireplace in the winter and expansive front porch in the summer are both wonderful areas for reminiscing. A fully plated breakfast will await all overnight guests in the morning. A perfect way to begin your new adventure in life together.
